

GUIDE IN PREPARING PRACTICAL ASSESSMENT OF COMPETENCE FOR RATINGS FORMING PART OF AN ENGINE-ROOM WATCH

	Competence	Number of Exercises	Time Allocated (minutes)	Passing Mark	Passing Percentage
F1	Marine engineering at the support level
C1	Carry out a watch routine appropriate to the duties of a rating forming part of an engine-room watch Understand orders and be understood in matters relevant to watchkeeping duties	2
C2	For keeping a boiler watch: Maintain the correct water levels and steam pressures	1
C3	Operate emergency equipment and apply emergency procedures	1
	GRAND TOTAL	4

Notes:

1. There are 4 competences in the practical assessment of competence for RFPEW
2. Each competence shall be demonstrated, assessed, and passed, independently.
3. The candidates must be able to meet a minimum of 70% to pass
4. A candidate who fails in the same competence 3 times, shall not be allowed to re-sit for that competence, until upon showing proof of approved sea service for a period of not less than 1 month, with a certification from the ship's master that the candidate has undergone on board experience relating to that particular competence (The 3-1 Rule); or approved training or refresher program relating to that particular competence;
5. A re-sit for the same competence on the same day is allowed.
6. A candidate shall pass in all the competences with practical assessment within a period not exceeding 2 years (24 months).
7. The full practical assessment of competence is subject to validation of the Board of Engine Ratings.